CHHSM LEADERSHIP RETREAT

LEADERSHIP IN BETWEEN

Reframing Your Role and Reclaiming Your Power Amid Transition and Change

Reflect with peers, reconnect with purpose, and recharge for your ministry through a 24-hour retreat Sept. 13-14, 2010, at the beautiful Mercy Center in St. Louis. This inaugural event will draw together CEOs and senior-level managers of CHHSM ministries in the Missouri Mid-South and Illinois South Conferences. Led by Daniel Pryfogle and Jeanne Gladden, the retreat will explore the theme of Leadership in Between.

Leadership in between is about the challenging reality all leaders face today: to lead amid budget cutbacks, layoffs and organizational change, between recession and recovery, between the movement from the old to the new. And leadership in between is about possibility in this time: the potential of our organizations, the resources that are already present, and the power that emerges between us – the sustaining energy of leadership in community.

If you are ...

- Stressed out and out of focus
- Making hard decisions
- Dealing with high organizational anxiety

... and you are ready to ...

- Let go of “limiting paradigms,” beliefs that block us from being our best
- Leverage personal and corporate strengths
- Draw upon the power of leadership in community

... then set aside this Sabbath time. Limited to 25 participants, the retreat will create a space where colleagues can speak honestly of this moment in which it feels like things are falling apart yet also coming together. Through highly interactive sessions, with ample time for rest and fellowship with peers, participants will explore both their challenges and their power through a creative blend of theological/spiritual reflection, change theory, and strength-based development.

Facilitators: Daniel Pryfogle, CHHSM’s director of leadership formation and principal/creative director of The Signal Hill Company, a leadership and communications consultancy; and Jeanne Gladden, partner in The Quality Coach!, a business coaching practice.

Date and Location: Noon-noon, Sept. 13-14, 2010, at the Mercy Center, a beautiful 70-acre campus, with gardens, walking path and labyrinth (mercycentersstl.org).

Cost: $275, including meals and overnight accommodations.

Reservation Deadline: July 15, 2010. To request a registration form, e-mail Lorraine Cogan at coganl@chhsm.org or telephone her at the CHHSM office, 216-736-2250.
