Planning for Change: Who's Next to Lead

Abby Drane was named president and CEO of Uspiritus less than two years ago, but she already has a good idea of whom she'll recommend to succeed her at the organization. "I've seen a lot of succession planning," says Drane, who has more than 25 years of experience in the field of behavioral health services, holds an MBA and is a CPA, and has extensive executive leadership experience with two of Kentucky's largest community mental health centers.
